At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Metropolitan Savings Bank, held July 11, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, this Board has learned with profound sorrow of the death of our esteemed associate, Augustus K. Sloan; and a member of the Finance Committee for many years;

Resolved, That in his death this Institution has been deprived of an able, conscientious and wise counsellor, whose services as a Trustee have been of great value and usefulness to this Institution, Resolved, That the members of this Board feel a sense of personal loss, as the long association of Mr. Sloan with the members of this Board has en-
